

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3154 - SB 3314

March 7, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes a Tennessee driver, who is ticketed by the highway patrol for speeding, to enter a guilty plea in the appropriate court of the driver's home county and, subject to approval of the court, to attend traffic school in the driver's home county rather than in the county in which the ticket was issued.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Other Fiscal Impact – This will result in a shift in revenues and expenditures from one local court system to another local court system. The overall amount of revenues and expenditures will be unchanged.

Assumption:

- No overall change in revenues and expenditures to the local court system.
